

ADELAIDE HILLS
VIOGNIER
2007

Viticulture / Production

- Appellation: Adelaide Hills
- 100% Viognier
- Viticultural notes: The fruit was sourced from a vineyard in the Adelaide Hills near Mt Torrens. The vineyard is situated on a southern facing slope. The soil is a brown loam. The vineyard has foliage wires to let maximum sunlight into the canopy without impairing the fruit quality.

Wine Maker's Notes

- Colour: Pale yellow with a dominant green hue
- Nose: Apricot blossom, violets, white peach and citrus fruits
- Palate: A mouthfilling wine full of up front fruit flavour, finishing clean and crisp.

Tasting Notes

A well balanced wine with sweetness and acid. An outstanding array of sweet apricot blossom and violets fill the nose, while the palate exhibits characters of citrus and apricot which linger on.
