

ALLYSON PARSONS
CABERNET SAUVIGNON

2011 Australian Wine Companion

James Halliday

Allyson Parsons Barossa Valley

Cabernet Sauvignon 2007

There is no question the wine has a decidedly savory caste, but there is a core of very attractive black and red-currant fruit, the tannins are balanced, fine and ripe. Drink any time over the next four years.

2008 Australian Wine Companion

James Halliday

Allyson Parsons Barossa Valley

Cabernet Sauvignon 2005

In the super-ripe style of Craneford's '05 wines, although here the strength of the blackcurrant cabernet and associated tannins balances the sweetness.
